
COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

OPEN: If you could perform miracles, what would you do? Why?

SCRIPTURE: Read Romans 12:9-21.

DIG: Based on this passage, what is our response as Christians when we are persecuted? Which of these specifically is most difficult for you? Why?

Living in love as Romans 12:9-13 talks about doesn't guarantee we will be without persecution. How can we best glorify Christ while we're being persecuted, even while loving others? If you have been persecuted, share that experience with the group.

CHALLENGE: As Christians we will all be persecuted at some point if we seek to live for Jesus (2 Tim 3:12). Think about the situation you are in and how you can best respond in a way that will bring honor to God as others see your Christ-like character.

REFLECT: Log into your RightNow Media account this week and watch the 12-minute video, Should the Church Fear Hostility? (<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/VideoElement/150694>). Reflect on how to live for Jesus in the midst of persecution.
