
COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

OPEN: Who has discipled you? What did you appreciate about them?

SCRIPTURE: Read Matthew 11:28-30 and Luke 14:26-30.

DIG: The cost and the benefit of being a disciple of Christ are both very high. Share your thoughts of each from these two passages.

What does the Luke passage say regarding our ultimate priority? Why is the cost so high? How does that help in your walk with Jesus?

A sign of maturity is the ability to reproduce. What do we each need to do personally in order to allow ourselves to be discipled and to then disciple others? Think for a moment before you answer.

CHALLENGE: If you are currently being discipled, then pray for God to show you someone that you yourself can start to disciple. If you are not being discipled presently, then pray for God to give you boldness to ask someone to disciple you!

REFLECT: Log into your RightNow Media account this week and watch the two-minute video, Making Disciples, by Dhati Lewis, found under "Video Elements." (<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/VideoElement/110429>). Building relationships with people, inviting them into relationship with Jesus, then challenging them to change as Jesus works in their heart is something we can ALL do.
