
COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

OPEN: What are you looking forward to most during Spring Break?

SCRIPTURE: Read Matthew 19:1-9 and 1 Corinthians 7:10-16.

DIG: Based on the passages above and the one from the sermon, how do we see that Jesus came to fulfill the Law rather than to abolish or preserve it? What is the difference between these three ideas of abolishing, preserving, and fulfilling the law?

How does the idea of God loving marriage and hating divorce intersect in these passages? How can we tangibly see marriage in the same way God does?

CHALLENGE: If you're currently married or headed in that direction, what is one way you can change your thinking in order to see marriage as the Lord does? If you're single, do the same in relation to the Church as the Bride of Christ and Jesus as our Bridegroom..

REFLECT: Log into your RightNow Media account this week and watch the four-minute video, A Reconciled Marriage, found under "Video Elements" (<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/Illustration/241176>). It is not too late to reconcile your marriage or to help someone else who is struggling in theirs.
