A healthy fear of the Lord should include awe and reverence for His majesty, not a frightful worry of impending harm. How do the above passages clarify this for you?

How does a positive fear of the Lord motivate you in your daily life?

CHALLENGE: Read Psalm 62 for encouragement and refer to it anytime you feel shaken by hardships in life. Remember, as a follower of Jesus Christ, your relationship with the living God cannot be taken from you. He is with you and for you!
