
COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

OPEN: Easter is coming up soon. Who can you invite to church with you on Easter Sunday? Take a minute to pray for each name after everyone shares.

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 119:105 and Philippians 4:6-7.

DIG: Based on the passages above, how should we respond to the reality that we are all going to die at some point in time? How do these passages help guide us in the decisions we make now?

How often do you consciously make a decision with the end of your life in mind? Do you think of your days being numbered, as Psalm 90:12 says? Share how you can be more aware of this so as to make decisions based less on impulse and more with a view to God's kingdom.

What are some choices you make that have a long-term, godly perspective rather than a short-term, selfish perspective? Come up with 20 examples as a group.

CHALLENGE: Write your own obituary. What would you want to have said about the way you lived your life? How did you minister to others with a clear picture of God's plan? If you're not happy with how it looks, then right now is the perfect time to change your outlook and the way you respond to and think about the world God has placed you in.

REFLECT: Log into your RightNow Media account this week and watch the two-minute video Choices, found under "Video Elements" (<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/illustration/117201>). The choices we make each day can have an eternal impact when we have the right perspective in life.
