

COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

OPEN: Think of a time in your life where a bizarre or unlikely set of circumstances came about and you subsequently saw God's hand in all of it. How did it affect your faith?

DIG: Read Matthew 6:25-34. What is most encouraging to you about this passage? What is most convicting, and why?

Select one of the following:

/ seldom sometimes often always look for God's hand behind the scenes in the unfolding events of my life.

If you could give the angry atheist, Richard Dawkins, one reason why you believe this world is not an accident, what would it be, and why that answer?

When are you most likely to be discouraged or doubt that God is at work in your life accomplishing His purposes?

REFLECT: How do you believe God is preparing the world for the return of His Son, Jesus Christ? How do you see yourself as an integral part of that preparation?