- Prayer
- What has encouraged you in ministry recently? What does ministry look like right now and what are you working on?
  - Robert:
    - Encouragement: Corbin Coursey - growing in huge ways as a leader and having a testimony of where he was at in high school compared to where he is now and now God is using his testimony in his ministry to high school boys
    - Ministry: RIOT in the holiday season is fun, teaching through Daniel
  - Cooper
    - Encouragement: worship team members commitment and skill levels.
    - Ministry: Lights at Morning Star creative stuff, worship planning, starting to think about Christmas Eve service
  - Jen
    - Encouragement: new ladies who are newer believers at Bible Study, lots of one on one pastoral opportunities that have felt purposeful
    - Ministry: business as usual, connecting with other women's pastors in town, in-town women's conference, first impressions - connect class coming Nov 7
  - Katrina
    - Encouragement: middle school ministry is fun, leaders are bought in and growing and teachable, invite nights have gotten good traction, story - 8th grade boy who has been reading the daily devotional
    - Ministry: Highlife is trial running a new Orange curriculum, MMS is teaching through Luke, last Thursday of every month we are doing an invite night with an extra fun element to it, have been more intentional on leadership development with interns which has been good, working on Lights at Morning Star stuff
  - John
    - Encouragement: Cop Stop and the people who are investing in it, loving the mens stuff, Saturday Bible study happening without him, Sunday several of his Corban students showed up
    - Ministry: teaching Bible Study methods at Corban, teaching a lot coming up, next week working on rough draft 2022 budget, met with Financial Advisory Team last week, Lights at Morning Star things, elder meetings
- The Lights at Morning Star
